BUCKINGHAM WITHOUT A COURT.

Owing to error in the title of the bill amending section 3059 of the Code fixing the terms of the Circuit Courts of this State passed by the last legislature, the title not sufficiently expressing the provisions of the act, there will be no change whatever in the terms of any of the courts. Therefore the terms of the fifth circuit will be as follows:

Appomattox—First Monday in February; second Monday in May; fourth Monday in July; second Monday in November.

Charlotte—First Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November.

Cumberland—Tuesday after the fourth Monday in January, April, June and November.

Prince Edward—Third Monday in March, May, September, and November.

Buckingham county having been taken from the 5th circuit and put into the new 29th circuit, will have no terms fixed by law at all, provided the Supreme Court declares the act fixing the terms in the five new circuits unconstitutional as it is believed the court will do. The result as to Buckingham is a rather peculiar one, as she will have a Judge, but no terms fixed by law.

The Judge can order special terms but at these none but matured cases already pending can be tried unless by consent of all parties. It is possible that the judge might lawfully hold the old terms as fixed by law for the county where it was in the fifth circuit, and in that case there will likely be conflict with the terms of other counties in Judge Gordon's circuit.

We see no remedy for this condition of affairs for two years, or until the legislature reconvenes, either in special or regular session.

It would seem to be a considerable stretch of the law to hold that the old term fixed for Buckingham in the fifth circuit will follow it into the 29th.

A rather hazy outlook for litigants in old Buckingham. Members of the bar go flshing. People let us admonish you to be good.

There is a very general expression of regret that Judge Hundley is to leave the Buckingham bench.

AN APRIL BOUQUET.

Editor TIMES:—I want to congratulate you on the splendid paper you are giving your patrons. I do not know of a better local paper in the State, but what I wish to call special attention to is the value of the TIMES for it's general news and religious columns. Most people are content to read the local news in the local paper and then throw it aside. Those who treat the TIMES in that way are making a great mistake. I admit that the local news is of prime importance, but the interest in your most excellent paper does'nt end there. I read one of the recent issues from end to end, sheet to sheet and enjoyed it all.

The sermon of Dr. Abbott was one of the best I ever read, the comments on the Sunday School lesson were entertaining and instructive and so with the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor notes. The Virginia news was condensed and yet comprehensive, and so was that of the Nations of Earth. Hints to farmers and housewives were of practical value and the jokes were new and refreshing, and all this and more for two cents a week. How can you afford it, Mr. Editor, and live?

READER.

"Labor" is going to take a hand in politics say the leaders, and this labor should have been doing all the while. Politics dominate this country and the people should dominate politics. This means that all qualified voters should take part in politics. And this does'nt mean that everybody should run for office but that every man of us should vote, laborers as well as lawyers, miners as well as merchants, farmers as well as financiers, brokers as well as bankers. Let the voters turn out and vote conscientiously and courageously and then they will not complain so much of hurtful legislation.

West Buckingham.

As it has been some time since I have seen any news from this section of our county, I will try and give you a few lines.

The writer was caught at Andersonville week before last during the several days rain and had a most delightful time with our dear brother Van and family. Brother Van says he has two latch strings to his door, one for the Methodist and one for the Baptist, but the Methodist string is the longest, so I happened to be a Methodist and spent three nights with him.

Since I last wrote our R. F. D. Carrier, Mr. J. E. Carter, had the misfortune to loose a horse.

Miss Edna Carter is at home again from Roanoke, where she has spent several months with relatives.

Miss Nellie Moore will close the sixth month of her school at Jov Hill on the 13th of this month.

I stated in my last letter that the white schools of Buckingham had been extended one month, when I should have stated the white schools of James River District. I also reported the death of Mrs Wash Layne, which occurred about five weeks ago. In this letter I announce the marriage of Mr. Wash Layne, which took place on the 15th of this month. Now Mr. Editor does it this look like business? I guess Appomattox can't beat it.

Most of our farmers are through seeding oats and are now busy gardening. Tobacco plants are look ing well.

The ladies of Mt. Tabor church have succeeded in raising a sufficient amount of money to buy a nice organ and it is now in Wingina depot and will be ready for the first Sunday, our regular preaching day.

Mr. Herman Moore and C. L. Moore have bought them a nice saddle and driving horse each.

Mrs. Minnie Moore has about 75 young chickens and some nearly large enough to fry.

Mr. Ragland Featherstone attended Buckingham court and traded horses twice. Come again and we will teach you how to trade sure.

The Richest Man in the World

The richest man in the world can not have his kidneys replaced or invented, without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life."

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rhoumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of suffers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords sure a quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox, R. J. Carter, Prospect, E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Pamplin City.

Dr. E. E. Walker was called by telegram last week to see his daughter, Jessie May, in Mecklenburg, who was sick, but expects to return to-night.

Since the building of the warehouse for the sale of tobacco here, the business of the N. & W. railroad has increased so much that they have sent Mr. J. L. Calhoun from Waverly, to assist Mr. Davis in his work. Mr. Calhoun is a married man and he and his wife will receive a cordial welcome as newcomers to our town.

The warehouse has completed a successful season in tobacco sales and will close up on next Saturday the 21st of April.

The youngest child of Mr. R. D. Baldwin, a six-year-old girl, met with a painful accident by falling from the stable loft and breaking the bone of her thigh.

The TIMES for news.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wool, ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds.
